LITERARY SECTION OF TUESDAY CLUB HOLDS SESSION

FINAL MEETING OF TERM AND
MRS. F. L. HOLLINGSWORTH
IS CHOSEN NEW CURATOR

The literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club held the last meeting of the season yesterday afternoon at the home of the curator, Mrs. A. M. Williams, 208 South Orange street, at which time Mrs. F. L. Hollingsworth was elected curator for the coming year.

At the beginning of the meeting Mrs. Williams announced that Mrs. C. E. Stanley, who, at a previous meeting had been elected to this position, felt that her health would not permit accepting.

Mrs. C. E. Stanley, chairman of the committee for planning next year's work, reported that their recommendations included the taking up of book reviews, a talk by Mrs. Alma Danford, magazine reviews, Americanization work, especially emphasizing the study of books and poems by American authors.

Change Meeting Days
A motion was carried changing the section meeting days to the second and fourth Mondays of each month, meetings to begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Hollingsworth invited the members of the section to meet at her home, 462 West Riverdale Drive, the first meeting of the coming year, which will be in October.

The remainder of the afternoon was given over to the program and social intercourse. Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Williams, and who has just recently returned from Berkeley, where she was granted a diploma, gave a most delightful reading of the first act of "The Tyranny of Tears," by G. H. Chambers. She very charmingly responded to repeated encores by reading "I Failed Down in de Mud" and one of Riley's bits of humor, the theme of which was "Was I There, Ma?"

Mrs. Williams, in extending best wishes to Mrs. Hollingsworth and expressing pleasure for having had the opportunity of acting as curator during the past term, closed the session.

Friend's Letter Brings Texas Residents Here

One letter of persuasion from a friend of long acquaintance resulted in the arrival in Glendale recently of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Kennedy from Dallas, Texas, who are now located at 202 Fairview avenue, the friend who wrote the letter being E. F. Sanders of 121 Fairview.

Mrs. Kennedy was the first woman ever appointed deputy sheriff of any county in the United States, she serving in that capacity in Dallas county in 1917-18. Mr. Kennedy has been in the oil business in Dallas for the past three years, before which time he was a resident of Chicago, Illinois. He was a newspaper man in Oklahoma at one time. Thomas Kennedy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, is en route to Glendale by automobile from Dallas. A subscription for The Glendale Evening News is further proof of Mr. Kennedy's interest in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turner of 328 North Brand, have purchased and moved into the C. D. Lusby home at 118 East Park avenue. They are remodeling and redecorating the interior by adding French doors and enameling the woodwork in old ivory.

Paul Hutchinson Is Elected President Of School Student Body

Election of student body officers at Glendale Union High school, an event which is always accompanied by a great deal of interest and excitement, took place yesterday with the result that Paul Hutchinson was elected president by a large majority after a hard-fought campaign between the three candidates for this office. He has been active in debating and oratorical contests and for the past year has been president of his class.

Dorothy Peart, who has been secretary of the Girls' league during the past term, was elected secretary of state. Kathleen Campbell, who represented the sophomore class in the oratorical and who has also been active in debating, was elected secretary of debating.

Fern Peters was the choice of the students for the position of secretary of finance. George Jordan, a member of the journalism class, was elected secretary of publications by a large majority. Lucy Strother, who efficiently filled the position of secretary of the student body during the last half year, was elected secretary of assemblies. Fred Terzo was re-elected secretary of athletics by a close vote.

Members of the election committee in charge of yesterday's contest included Garnet Peters, Eva Green, William Winfield and Bob White.

Two special assemblies were called this morning at the high school for the purpose of electing secretary of boys and secretary of girls. Dale T. Wood was chosen to succeed Arthur Campbell as secretary of boys and Miss Doris Packer was re-elected secretary of girls.

L. W. Chobe In Charge Of Float For Elks

If L. W. Chobe follows the precedent already set by him in designing floats for various parades, the float to be entered by the Glendale lodge of Elks in the national convention parade, to be held in Los Angeles next month, will bring high honors. He is supervising the Elks' float's construction.

Last year the float constructed under the direction of L. W. Chobe, representing the rapid growth of the city of Glendale, and the one of the previous year, depicting Glendale as the "City of Homes," won first prize at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Colvin Hosts In Behalf Of Son

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Colvin of 1235 East Lexington Drive entertained with a dinner and party last night in honor of the thirteenth anniversary of their son Edgar. TEACHERS PLAY FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS MONDAY NIGHT

"DEESTRICK SKULE" WILL BE PRESENTED AT TABERNACLE
TO AID STRICKEN FOLK

Although no call has been received by the Glendale chapter, American Red Cross, any cash donations for the relief of Pueblo flood sufferers will be forwarded through that agency, according to Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, local chairman.

From the proclamations of both the governor of Colorado and the governor of California, the necessity for aid is urgent. While the federal government and the Red Cross already are operating, the limited funds would make it seem advisable that contributions are the best means of ameliorating the terrible situation existing in Colorado's second largest town.

Any donations left with The Glendale Evening News for the Red Cross will be publicly acknowledged and forwarded post haste to the proper authorities.

"The Deestrick Skule" will be presented again next Monday night at the tabernacle at 8 p. m. for the benefit of the flood sufferers. It is presented by the City Teachers' club. Tickets will be sold by the school children and at the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. M. L. Russell Is R. T. W. Class Hostess

The regular meeting of the R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Russell, 322 Riverdale Drive. Devotions were led by the president, Mrs. C. S. Jewsbury, after which a short business meeting was held. A very interesting talk was given on "The Work of the Parent-Teacher Associations in Los Angeles" by Mrs. M. S. Kuehny, secretary of the Los Angeles Tenth District Federation of Parent-Teacher associations.

The house was beautifully decorated with daisies and crapeolis. There were twenty-five ladies present. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Plans were made for an all-day picnic to take the place of the last regular meeting. This will be held at the home of Mrs. Eddings at Tujunga.

Meet Again After 50 Years Of Separation

One of the strange but pleasant coincidences that are the lot of all of us at one time or another yesterday befell Rev. C. R. Norton of 801 East Wilson avenue. He was agreeably surprised when, in answering a ring at his door, he was confronted by Rev. Uriah B. Smith of Ottumwa, Iowa, whom he had not seen in over fifty years. They had spent their boyhood days together in Crawfordsville, Iowa, several years before the Civil war, and it was with great pleasure that they sat and discussed many happy bygone occurrences during their visit yesterday.

This is Rev. Smith's fifty-second year as a minister in the Iowa Methodist conference, he having served all that time continuously. He is spending several weeks in southern California visiting friends and relatives.

H. L. Hock Back From Trip To Middle West

H. L. Hock of 612 East Orange Grove avenue has just returned to Glendale after an absence of two months, in which he visited a number of middle western states on business. He missed the fearful Colorado floods by a few days.

Mr. Hock reports that conditions throughout the country are inclined to be a little dull and that there is comparatively more prosperity in southern California now than in any other section of the United States. Mr. Hock spent several weeks at his old home in York, North Dakota.

Dwight Begeman Is Regaining His Health

Dwight Begeman, a former resident of Glendale who has been seriously ill in the Phoenix sanitarium at Phoenix, Ariz., is now reported on the road to recovery. While in the service of the U. S. navy during the world war, he was a member of one of the big gun crews in France. He was gassed by the Boche.

Friendly Society Work Outlined At Meeting

At a meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society of St. Mark's church, which was held last night in the social hall of the church, plans were made for the next month's work. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Louise Ayala. Mrs. E. H. Parker, director of the society, reported that more than $30 had been made at the candy booth at the church bazaar.

At this time it was decided that the members of the society would visit the museum at Exposition Park next Sunday afternoon. Miss Connie Hutchinson of 626 West Myrtle street invited the members of the society to hold a social meeting at her home next Tuesday. An entertainment committee, consisting of Martha Barrett, Connie Hutchinson and Lorna Gaylord, was appointed to make arrangements for that time. Current events will be discussed at the meeting June 21. The last Tuesday in the month will be something like a stunt party, each member will provide one number to the evening's entertainment. It was decided that in the near future the members of the society will present a play "Six Cups of Chocolate." At the next meeting the characters will be selected.

Miss Dorothy Cotton Is Hostess At Party

Miss Dorothy Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cotton of 1137 San Rafael avenue, entertained the members of the Glendale High School Girls' Indoor Baseball team and several teachers with a picnic party in the beautiful garden back of her home yesterday afternoon in celebration of her 16th birthday anniversary. The guests included Kathleen Taylor, Louise White, Winifred Spindler, Eloise Truitt, Mildred Cole, Jessie Griffin, Lula Drake, Frances Drake, Lucille Nelson, Dorothy Van Osdoll, Ruth Hunt, Miss Knight, Miss Shindel and Miss Hunter. An impromptu ball game and shooting contest provided diversions for the afternoon, after which a picnic supper was enjoyed.

Miss Ruth Rider Is At Saginaw, Michigan

Miss Ruth Rider, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Rider of 208 East Acacia avenue, who has been supervising music in the schools at Morenci, Arizona, is finishing the remainder of this year's work at Saginaw, Michigan. During the summer Miss Rider is planning on visiting friends in Chicago, her aunt, Mrs. Spickles at La Moure, North Dakota, and other relatives at Red Wing, Minnesota.

Rev. Rider's son, Paul, has been attending and completed his first year at Princeton Theological seminary and is now preaching at Draton, North Dakota. He will return to Glendale the latter part of August for a short visit with his parents and this fall will attend the Sanan Semo seminary near San Francisco.

Alfred Cookman Will Join San Diego High

At the meeting of the board of education last night Alfred Cookman, instructor in general science in the local high school, presented his resignation, as he has accepted a unanimous invitation extended him by the board of education of San Diego to become instructor of general science of hygiene in the Union high school of that city. This is one of the largest high schools of the state, with an enrollment of approximately 3000 pupils.

Mr. Cookman has accepted this larger field of usefulness with an increase in salary and the student body and his many friends here in Glendale will wish him great success in this new and larger field of work.

JOCK HUTCHINSON QUALIFIES IN TOURNEY, BELIEF

GLEN EAGLES, Scotland, June 8.—Jock Hutchinson, Chicago, was believed certain to have qualified in the international professional golf tournament today. He turned in a card of 213 for the 54 holes necessary to qualify. Edward Ray turned in the lowest score reported in early returns with 212. Hutchinson was tied with A. C. Hauris at 213. There was some doubt that Tom Kerrigan, New York professional had qualified. His card was 225.

SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL IS PASSED BY OREGON VOTERS

PORTLAND, June 8.—Early returns from twenty-eight of the thirty-six Oregon counties indicate the passage of the soldiers' bonus bill by the tax payers of this state by a vote of three to one. The bonus vote approves an amendment passed at the last session of the Oregon legislature giving veterans the option of a $15 a month cash bonus for every month served from the date of entry of the United States into the war, or a loan not to exceed $4000 on real estate property.

SEEKS TO PREVENT CARPENTIER-DEMPESEY CONTEST

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Prohibition of the Carpenter-Dempsey fight scheduled for July 2 until congress grants a bonus to those who fought in the world war is provided in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative Gallivan of Massachusetts. The resolution prohibits the fight for the world championship in any state until war fighters are rewarded. In his resolution Gallivan attacks Dempsey as "a big bum who dodged the draft," and says Carpenter was slow in joining the colors of his country.

A. D. LASKER TO BE SHIPPING BOARD'S CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A. D. Lasker has agreed to become chairman of the shipping board, it was announced at the White House today. Other members will be Admiral Benson, present chairman; Frederick I. MAY BE FLAW IN STATE'S ANTI-ALIEN LAND LAW

MARYSVILLE, June 8.—A flaw in the California anti-alien land law may have been found in the suit of the state against Jusuke Shingu, Japanese, Superior Judge E. P. McDaniel of Yuba county declared today. After hours of argument yesterday Judge McDaniel held the case under consideration this morning. The particular flaw has to do with the alleged practice of the Japanese in buying land in the name of children born in this country. Judge McDaniel indicated that he had serious doubts whether, under the present construction of the alien land act, this practice can be stopped. Shingu, according to testimony brought out in court, purchased land in this country and recorded the deed in the name of his child. The state asked that the land revert to the state under the alien land law.

OBREGON SEEKS TO GAIN U. S. RECOGNITION FIRST

WASHINGTON, June 8.—President Obregon of Mexico will strive to obtain American recognition before any actual signing of a treaty between the United States and Mexico such as has been proposed by Secretary Hughes, it was believed here today. The Mexican president will take this course in order not to menace his position with the Mexican people in coming to an agreement with the United States government which will allow extension of American recognition. To this end, it was predicted that Obregon may state in his next communication to the Washington government that he is willing to negotiate a treaty with the United States along the lines suggested by Hughes, provided recognition be extended his government. Negotiations are now going on in Mexico City between Obregon and George T. Summerlin, charge of the American embassy.

George F. Hill Well Satisfied With Glendale

Seeing is believing. This again proved to be the case of George F. Hill, who recently came to Glendale from Weymouth, Massachusetts, fifteen miles from Boston.

Mr. Hill is an intimate friend of E. V. Jellison of the J. and K. garage at 1006 South Brand boulevard, and who has been a resident of Glendale for the past year or more. After hearing reports of the wonders and beauty of Glendale, Mr. Hill evidently decided to see for himself. L. T. Rowley Makes Sacrifice Behalf Of Teachers' Club Play

Strewn on the barber shop floor,
a sacrifice on the altar of art.
That's what happened to L. T.
Rowley's mustache.

He is attendance officer of the Glendale city school system.

The Teachers' club cast him for the role of Obidiah Buzzard in their presentation of "The Deestrick Skule." His part did NOT require a mustache.

Therefore the sacrifice.

Ship Hits Iceberg But Proceeds Toward Port

BOSTON, Mass., June 8.—A message received here from Halifax, N.
S., declared that the Britisher freighter, Seapool, which struck an iceberg off Newfoundland is proceeding very slowly to St. Johns.

The message said the steamer's
forefoot was broken and her fore-peak was full of water.

The location given would be about 300 miles off the coast of Newfoundland.

Damaged, but Safe

NEW YORK, June 8.—The British steamer, Seapool, which apparently struck an iceberg off the Newfoundland coast, was damaged, but is safe, according to a wireless received by the naval radio station here today.

The Seapool is a 2,799-ton steamship. It left Montreal on June 2 for Dublin.

The steamer is owned by the Pool Shipping company of England and is operated by Sir R. Roper & Co.

The message sent at 9:27 stated:
"Proceeding on course. Forepeak full of water."

Naval radio officers said the nearest ship to the Seapool, which left Montreal for Dublin on June 2, was the steamer Orduna. She was about 260 miles to the eastward.

The British steamer Orduna which left Hamburg last week, is near the Seapool, according to the last report to the naval radio here and is in position to take off the crew if necessary.

Membership Contest Causes Much Interest

A spirited attendance and membership contest is reported to be in progress at the Central Christian church between the two young ladies' Sunday school classes, namely the "Live Coles" and the "Delta Omegas." Both classes formerly were combined under the name of "Live Cole" but a few weeks ago the single girls of the class pulled away from the others and established their now called "Delta Omega" class.

Immediately a challenge was hurled by the "rebels" and just as quickly was it taken up by the "loyalists." The contest will last until the last Sunday in July, when by agreement the winners will be entertained by the less fortunate group.

Price Of Dodge Car Drops; Demand Heavy

The Dodge prices drop. This popular motorcar has been increasing the beauty and equipment of its car in the face of a bearish market and when the peak of perfection in workmanship is reached, the slash in prices is announced.

George E. Clayton, Glendale and Burbank representative, was more than glad to hear the news, for it means increased sales and more users of Dodge cars.

Only a month ago did factory production catch up with orders on the coast and there is now a plentiful supply of Dodge cars, equipped with cord tires and all ready for the road
except for the license.

J. L. Grose Purchases Warehouse; To Remodel

J. L. Grose, who recently sold the avenue on which his oil station is located, has purchased the galvvanized iron warehouse on Maryland avenue, between Broadway and Wilson avenue, now occupied by the Valley Supply company, from the National bank of Los Angeles. He will remodel this, making it fireproof, and will conduct a general

van, trucking and storage business for automobiles, merchandise and household furniture. Mr. Grose will also continue the oil station business at its present location, Broadway and Maryland avenue.

TROOPS AT RIFLE RANGE

Troops stationed at the Arcadia balloon school are on the Glendale rifle range in Sycamore canyon this week at target practice. Last night they enjoyed campfires in the hills,
a scene which reminded veterans of Spanish-American and Civil War
days of their camp life.

CHRISTIAN CIRCLE CLUB

Seventy-five members of the Christian Circle club dined last night at the Baptist church, a supper being served by the ladies of the Central Avenue Methodist church. Miss Maud Soper is in charge of the Bible study which follows the weekly meetings.

street, entertained at a luncheon yesterday the members of a sewing club,
most of whom are from Los Angeles.
There were about 10 ladies present, including Mrs. MacPherson of Glendale. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

At a meeting of the board of city school trustees, the teaching staff was re-elected with the exception of seven

ger, Miss Mae Aldrich and Miss Margaret Lauderdale, all of Glendale,

Miss Marie Struble.

The Misses Dorothy and Fern Peters of 209 North Orange street entertained last Saturday a few of their

Drop In Price On Ford Car Causes Surprise

The announcement made yesterday of the drop in prices on Ford automobiles aroused considerable curiosity and interest among automobile dealers, owners and prospective owners alike. When interviewed on the subject, Jesse E. Smith, local Ford dealer, stated that, to say the least, this price reduction was a great surprise. Mr. Smith says:

"This reduction has been made possible by increased output and greater efficiency. Reduction in prices of materials and new contracts
for purchase of steel at lower figures, are of course, another very important factor."

"Before January 1, 1922, if the present production basis of over 4-000 cars per day continues, the Ford Motor Car company will have realized its goal of manufacturing a million and a quarter cars a year."

"To put it mildly, the demand for cars is redoubled and as the local Ford branch reported a shortage previous to the decrease. After all this new price reduction can be regarded as another philanthropic effort of Henry Ford."

Charges Federal Funds For Veterans 'Wasted'

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Charges that federal funds are being wasted
"by the shovelful," by the federal board for vocational education, in its soldier rehabilitation work, were made today by Representative Robinson, Republican, Kansas.

If the present policy is continued
the government could give every disabled soldier $10,000 in cash and then more soldiers would get the money that will be rehabilitated by the present board, he said.

Under present practices the rehabilitation bill will exceed $1,000,000-000, Robinson said, stating that already $265,000,000 has been appropriated. The congressman said he favored aiding the disabled men, but that although $145,000,000 already had been actually expended, only 3-000 men have rehabilitated—a cost of $45,000 a man.

Overhead expenses of the board are extremely high, he charged, in claiming that in April, 1921, the board paid $8,000,000 to the wounded men and $3,000,000 in salaries.

Robinson claimed that the board is allowing "mushroom" schools to be organized over night for the training of men and large sums given their promoters, instead of sending the wounded to state universities and established schools.

A love letter is a promissory note

mand.

Miss Sarah M. Thomas Looked And Then She Thought About Florida

"Alligators!"
That was the startled cry of Miss Sarah M. Thomas of 615
North Louise street as she saw a six-foot wriggling animal smiling at her from a corner of the vegetable garden.

Police were called and Chief
J. P. Lampert responded.
Sure enough there was an alligator. After an investigation, the chief learned it was a pet belonging to Walter S. Hertzog of 618 North Maryland avenue.

It has been a resident of Glendale for six years, but few of the neighbors knew of it.

Several Of High School Faculty Quit Positions

Resignations of several members of the Glendale Union High school faculty were accepted by the board of education at their meeting last night. Charles H. Wright, of the woodworking department, and C. D.
Poore, of the science department, are leaving. Alfred Cookman is going to the San Diego High school's general science department. Miss Elda
M. Eggert, who has been on leave, has accepted a position in Alameda.
Miss Aileen H. E. Renshaw has asked leave to study music in New York.

Miss Lillian Shattuck has been elected to fill the vacancy in the girls' physical education department.
Several other changes are under consideration which makes it impossible to announce next year's teaching staff, according to Principal George U. Moyse.

Nimble Finger Club Members In Session

Mrs. Cora Jones was hostess last night to the members of the Nimble Finger club at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. R. Norton, 801 East Wilson. She was assisted by Miss Helen Gould and Miss Alma Hillyard.
The evening was spent in sewing,
after which dainty refreshments were served. There were twenty-one members present, which was a record attendance.

The next meeting, which will be held June 21, will be at the home of Mrs. W. F. Rich on East Broadway.

California Crew Has Good Chance At Title

NEW YORK, June 8.—California's sturdy eight has a good chance to add to the glory already piled up for the Pacific coast by winning the inter-collegiate rowing championship.

It is known that the big, husky coast youngsters can go the three-mile distance at a high stroke. That much isn't sure of the other entries.

The California showed in the race that in losing to Princeton it is a long distance crew and is not built for sprinting. There is a world of power in the shell. With the possible exception of navy's 1920 crew, no finer, better-looking specimen of manhood have been seen in a shell in the east.

Much of the great power of the crew was lost in the Princeton race
by a stroke which seemed to discourage the use of the leg drive.

California forced Princeton to a new record to win the race last Saturday over a mile and three-quarters, but the coast crew finished just as fresh as the victors and looked good for three miles at the same fast pace.

Columbia, perhaps being an undefeated crew and one of the best ever developed at the New York institution, will be the favorite. The navy eight also must be considered, but there is doubt in the ability of the midshipmen to go the distance. It is principally sprint crew that has been going over the short distances.

California and the navy would give anything to get another crack at the Princeton's crew, but the Trigers will not row, there being a policy at Nassau against long distance rowing. The Pacific coast eight is now at Poughkeepsie working out on the Hudson. Two weeks practice on the course may take a lot of the rough spots off their work.

Ensign Jacomini who rowed with the navy crew last year when it went to a world's record in Antwerp, said after the California-Princeton race:
"California's the crew we have to beat at Poughkeepsie."

2 AND 2 MAKE 22?

"Two and two never make more than four, declared a politician at a meeting.

"Yes, they do!" exclaimed a man
in the audience.
"Perhaps our good friend will kindly tell us when two and two make more than four?" blandly said
the speaker.

Whereupon the man cried: "When they're side by side; then they make twenty-two, don't they?"

ATTORNEY EVANS TO TAKE POSTOFFICE PETITION EAST

IF YOU HAVE NOT SIGNED IT
DO SO AT ONCE, IS URGED
UPON LOCAL CITIZENS

Attorney W. E. Evans, who expects to leave Glendale next Tuesday for New York City, has told Dr. Henry R. Harrower, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce postoffice committee, that he will be glad to stop over in Washington and personally present the petitions of more than 1000 Glendale citizens asking for an independent postoffice to Congressman Walter F. Lineberger.

In turn, the two of them will place the matter before the postoffice department and enlist the aid of Postmaster-General Will H. Hays if possible. This, it is believed, will be action after eight years of apathy on one of Glendale's most glaring needs—an independent postoffice and federal building.

The Glendale Evening News, which has been a consistent booster for an independent postoffice to better the service here, urgently requests that every head of a family who has not signed this petition to do so immediately at the Chamber of Commerce or any of the banks.

Mechanical Features At Local High School

By A. R. OLIVER
Head of Mechanical Dept.

The doors will be opened to the public, June 7-10, throughout the day and Wednesday and Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:30. Come and see what your son has done.

The woodworking projects on display are perhaps not as numerous as in previous years. In a measure this is due to the students being much younger and not as fully developed as in former years. Time does not permit me to fully describe the many projects and I must leave the visitors to pass judgment or freely criticize.

These young embryo mechanics, starting in as they do without any knowledge of tools, machinery or other, working first upon simple points in wood working are carried along by stages to the more difficult problems of cabinet making, the use of machinery, revolving band saw, cut-off saw, swing saw, plane and wood-trimming lathes.

Auto shop in this department we cannot show what has been accomplished, nothing material remaining to show the completed work.

George E. Cryer Is Chosen Mayor Of L. A.

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—George E. Cryer has been elected mayor of Los Angeles by a majority of approximately 6000 over the incumbent, M. P. Snyder, according to returns today on yesterday's municipal election. The official count has not yet been announced.

A prohibition enforcement ordinance, extending the right of seizure to local authorities, was defeated on the same ballot by 3000 votes.

Passage of a $2,500,000 bond issue to provide funds for a new library and a $4,800,000 bond issue to finance harbor improvement works were also indicated in the incomplete returns.

Other bond issues were believed to have been defeated. These included the $12,250,000 outlet sewer project, the $1,000,000 viaduct project and smaller issues for the waterworks, fire and police departments.

Return of six members of the Los Angeles city council was indicated. These were Councilmen Criswell, Mallard, Sanborn, Langdon, Conaway and Wheeler. Three new entries also appeared to be sure of seats in the councilmanic body—Sparks, Mushet and Allan.

Aspirants for seats on the board of education, who were leading in the morning count, were York, Seaman, Bettinger, Graig, Millsbaugh, Shore and Odell.

ITS ONLY ASSET
Jenkins had a car. He was very proud of it. But the neighbors were rather scornful.

The other day he drove round to a local garage and asked the man there what was the best thing to do with it. The motor man looked over the car in silence for several minutes after which he grasped the horn and tooted it.

"You've quite a good horn there," he remarked, quietly to Jenkins. "Suppose you jack it up and run a new car under it!"

THROUGH STONE WALL

A French scientist, chief of the bureau of radiography for the Paris hospitals, has demonstrated that an x-ray apparatus can photograph subjects through a stone wall more than twenty-five feet distant from the source of the rays. He has obtained clear photographs of metallic objects, the rays filtering through marble plates more than an inch thick, twelve inches of oak, four inches of plaster and a sheet of lead an eighth of an inch thick.

Alleged 'Bluebeard' Is Entertained At Theatre

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Mrs. Lydia Southard, alleged "feminine Bluebeard," probably will leave San Francisco late today for Twin Falls, Idaho, to face the charges of poisoning four of her husbands and her brother-in-law. She arrived yesterday from Honolulu.

Sitting inconspicuously in the audience at the Orpheum last night, Mrs. Southard listened to the jokes and jests of the vaudeville performance and laughed as heartily as any other member of the audience.

Seated between Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. V. H. Ormsby, Mrs. Southard's presence passed unnoticed. Deputy Sheriff Ormsby and his wife are waiting word from Twin Falls, Idaho, before leaving.

"When we found we would have to stay over until today we decided to keep Mrs. Southard here with us," stated Mrs. Ormsby this morning when interviewed at a prominent local hotel. "We decided we could make her more comfortable here. We went and got her from the jail about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon."

"I had some shopping in Chinatown to do, so Mr. Ormsby and myself took her with us into the Chinese district while we bought some things. No one recognized us, of course. In the evening we went to the Orpheum. Mrs. Southard seemed to enjoy it. It was a relaxation as we were all pretty tired from the trip and the bother in landing."

"Mrs. Southard slept well and made us no trouble. She is a model prisoner as far as that goes."

WORK OF CLEANING UP PUEBLO WILL TAKE MONTHS

SOME COMFORTS ARE RESTORED TO CITY; RELIEF TRAINS
SENT FROM DENVER

By SAM I. FREED
United Press Staff Correspondent
PUEBLO, Colo., June 8.—This city today settled down to a long and hard pull to get from under the mud and misery left in the wake of the mad Arkansas river.

The harvest of dead stood at forty-five bodies in local morgues
and reports of twenty-seven other dead in valley towns.

Work of cleaning up Pueblo will take months, it was said.
Railroads have started filling in breaches in the levees, which will serve to protect the new tracks being laid.

Two relief trains arrived from Denver today and one left for the stricken cities of the north. Five hundred Puebloans cheered the first train to reach the station.

Two motor lorries and fifty wagons were to entrain today from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for Pueblo to help restore order and dig the city out.

Comforts Being Restored
More than a hundred horses were drowned in the flood and were today burned in great pyres on the outskirts of the city.

The comforts of civilization, wiped out for several days, are quite generally restored today with electric light, water and telephone service and a minimum amount of domestic gas available.

Several of the flood victims were to be buried today, the services to be very simple affairs.

Transfer of refugees to the concentration camp built by national guardsmen began last night with the removal of many men from the court house and schools to the tent city on the southside.

The camp will be enlarged gradually to relieve all public institutions, as their presence in schools,
court houses, municipal and city
buildings has seriously upset official routine.

Seek Immediate Action On Building Great Dam

EL CENTRO, June 8.—Southern California will present a solid front in urging immediate action on the building of the proposed mammoth Boulder canyon dam on the Colorado river, according to a decision of a recent meeting of representatives from Southern California. The submission of the final report on the project by Arthur P. Davis, director of the United States reclamation service, is eagerly awaited. It is expected on June 16.

While various methods of financing the project were discussed, the general opinion was that the government should and would help because of the benefit it will receive in reclamation of its 500,000 acres of land under the project.

Boulder canyon would supply gravity water to much arid land in Nevada, Arizona and California. Between 26,000,000 and 27,000,000
acre feet of water would be impounded. Besides furnishing water the dam would be a flood control link of great importance to all the lower Colorado river country.

As planned Boulder canyon dam would be 700 feet high, the tallest in the world, and 300 feet wide. Los Angeles, San Diego and other Southern California cities are interested in the vast electrical power that would be developed.

Mary Pickford Picture Palace Grand Feature

Mary Pickford's latest United Artists production, "Through the Back Door," will be shown as the feature attraction at the Palace Grand Theatre for three days beginning this afternoon.

This picture shows Mary Pickford
in a child role which at the same time is a character part. The story is a combination of comedy and drama,
punctuated with many of those laughable pranks for which Little Mary is famous when portraying a pig-tailed kiddie.

From the farms of Belgium to the mansions of Long Island the camera follows this clever little actress in "Through the Back Door." Mother
love and the heart-hunger of a child
all bound up in an intricate society
drama, supply the emotional impulses
of the play.

The scenario is from the pen of Marion Fairfax, well-known photoplay-wright and dramatist, Jack Pickford and Alfred E. Green directed, while that wizard of the lens Charles Rosher, presided over the camera.

The management has arranged a special added program of distinctive numbers, which promises to make the show at the Palace Grand a real entertainment treat.

And of course the music will be equal to the pictures. There is every reason to believe immense crowds
will attend.

Before crossing a street look both ways to be sure no short-skirted girl is in sight. Then you can watch for automobiles.

Blind Man Tells Of His Fight With Flood

PUEBLO, Colo., June 8.—Blind
Harry Wade, on a cot in the emergency hospital at the court house here today, jested about his narrow escape from drowning in the flood.

"I've been through the Frisco earthquake, had both my eyes put out in a mine explosion seven years ago, and got a game leg," said
Harry, a young spirited, gnarled giant of 55 years. His face was leather skinned from the world's hard knocks in a varied career of miner, farmer and globe trotter.

"I lived at 3208 North Union avenue," continued Harry. "Doris Leaher kept the rooming house there. She was saved I hear, but how gets me. She screamed something frightful when the house caved
in on us."

Harry has not been told that the body of his landlady lies in a local morgue.

"I'm bruised black and blue and skinned on my arms and legs where planks and other things hit me," said Harry. "But I guess it simply wasn't my turn to cash in."

"I'd heard that the river was rising, but didn't think our place was in danger until the Paris restaurant
block next door started to cave in.
I went into Doris' room and told her we'd better beat it. The rear porch had gone down when the Paris collapsed."

"Just then the whole building seemed to fall on us. We were on the second or top floor."

"We're gone," I yelled to Doris.
"I was caught under a mass of stuff. I felt around and recognized pieces of the roof, a stove, the ceiling and wall partition."

"The water was flushing around me. I was down on the street level under the wreckage."

"I could move a little, the timbers apparently protected me from the stuff piled up."

"I felt around my head, thinking
'oldtimer, you'll be lucky to get out of this.'"

"I could not get far beyond where my head lay. I next fell to one side of the stove. There was an opening and I crawled along. The water occasionally lapped against me. I climbed down over wreckage until I struck the full force of the flood on the street."

"I never called for help. It didn't occur to me just then, I was so busy thinking what a fix I was in. I was standing in three feet of water and was getting hit every second by something."

"I kept going up town. I know the district perfectly. A block down
I heard some men yelling at me to come toward them. I had been knocked down a dozen times. When I heard them yelling I began to think of yelling for help."

"When bowled over another time, I was almost too weak to get up. I rolled over and over with the flood,
getting half way up and then going down again."

"Then I yelled for help. I hollered I couldn't make it to the corner where stood several men whose voices I recognized."

"One of the boys, a mailman—I don't know his name—waded in and grabbed me. And here I am. I'm glad Doris is saved."

Campaign for Pacific Fleet Will Continue

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The plans of the navy department to reorganize the American navy so as to create a main fleet in the Pacific Ocean will not be dropped because provision for the new Alameda naval base on San Francisco bay has been stricken out of the naval appropriation bill, high naval officials declared today.

Even with authorization for the Alameda base, which has been subjected to a bitter fight in the senate,
it would take several years before the proposed project could be completed, these naval officers pointed out, and the consideration being given to putting a main fleet in the Pacific would involve more immediate action.

The question of carrying out such a reorganization of the fleet is now before President Harding and Secretary Denby.

Approximately half of the American naval forces are now in the Pacific, officers say, and it is admitted that to put many additional war craft on that coast probably would tax the existing bases.

However, the plans of the navy department are understood to contemplate a reorganization of the navy which would not necessarily overburden the Pacific bases.

It is planned to bring practically all the battleships together on the Pacific Coast, thus creating the main fleet and to organize a fleet, probably headed by battle cruisers on the Atlantic Coast, but with the burden of the upkeep of the two fleets about equally divided so as not to overtax
the Pacific bases.

LITERARY SECTION OF TUESDAY CLUB HOLDS SESSION

MRS. F. L. HOLLINGSWORTH

ing the past year, stated that the curator alone can do nothing without the co-operation and support of all the members of the section.

Mrs. Hutchinson Speaks
Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, was then called upon to give a few words.
She told of the establishment of the literary section, which was the first of the sections to be formed in the club. The first year the section had only seven members. Since that time the other sections have been formed. At the present time the matter is under consideration as to whether two more sections shall be formed.

One of the sections which has been asked for is an arts and crafts section for the purpose of taking up work along the line of home decorations and art, such as is being taught in classes at some of the larger stores in Los Angeles. The other section suggested is one for bible study.

Mrs. Hutchinson spoke of the bible sections of the Ebell club of Los Angeles and also of the Shakespeare club of Pasadena. Mrs. Hutchinson also spoke with pleasure of the opportunity of welcoming Mrs. Williams as a member of the board of directors of the club next year.

Tells of Yosemite Trip

Mrs. C. E. Stanley was then called upon to tell of her trip to Yosemite,
as delegate to the state convention of women's clubs. She told of the trip north and described in detail
her stay at Yosemite, account of which was given in a previous copy of The Glendale Evening News.

Miss H. M. Smith, recently from Canada, who is an accomplished pianist, kindly responded to a request that she play a solo, by rendering "Valse Arabesque" (Lack).
As an encore she played a "Sketch"
by Bird.

At the close of a most delightful and pleasant afternoon refreshments of ice-cream, cake and coffee were served.

Jurymen Cannot Agree in Boy Murder Trial

KNOX, Ind., June 7.—Judge Pen-tcock dismissed the jury hearing the case of Cecil Burkett, aged 11,
charged with the murder of a playmate, when the foreman of the jury
said an agreement was impossible.
The jury had been out nineteen hours and argued all night over Cecil's fate.

"Ma" Burkett, the boy's mother, surrounded by her brood of seven children, broke down and wept for the first time since the trial began.
Cecil displayed no concern over the fact that the jury failed to acquit him.

"Oh, it don't make any difference to me," he said, sticking his hands in his bulging pockets. "Only I hope I don't have to come back here again."

The boy had been calm throughout his trial for shooting seven-year-old Bennie Slavin.

After the disagreement he tucked
the little thumb-worn map—his version of the tragedy—back in his blouse.

"I'm going swimmin' as soon as they let me out of here, Ma," said
Cecil. "Ma" did not answer.

"It's been awful cooped up here all the time. I'd be glad to get out."
Cecil, although the jury disagreed,
will get out, too.

He is under $10,000 bonds raised by the citizens of Ora, not far from here.

None of the attorneys for the state were in the courtroom when the judge dismissed the jury. It is not known whether they will attempt to try the boy again.

Soldier Legislation Contained In Booklet

Robert White, assemblyman from this district, The Evening News is in receipt of a pamphlet containing soldier legislation passed by the forty-fourth session of the state legislature and approved by Governor W. D. Stephens. The pamphlet was compiled by Jerome B. Kavanaugh, clerk of the assembly. Any interested in soldier legislation may inspect the pamphlet at The Evening

WOMAN LIFTS MAN

While the average woman possesses only about two-thirds of the physical strength of the average man, there have been women who could rival almost every feat of the strongest men. One of the most wonderful of them all was Miss Kate Roberts, the daughter of a Welsh preacher. Though there was nothing in the least massive about this young woman she could lift a full-grown man above her head with one arm.

SHOWER OF FACTS AND FIGURES FALLS IN 'DEAR KATIE'S' WAY

Surprising and Important Information Dispatched
 About Glendale and Its Remarkable Growth

Glendale, June 8, 1921.

Dear Katie: For the general sake of informin' you and my many friends back there in the polar regions of Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio and the South Bend of Indiana, I am goin' to explain to you-all the why and wherefore of the things that makes Glendale famous.

In some of my letters previous to the past I have told you all about the land's capes and the climate.

Maybe sometimes you decided as how I was stretchin' the facts to the commencement of the limit, but after you have lived in California as long as I have Katie, you'll probably be just as big a liar as I am.

But today what I have to tell you is nothin' more than the truth, cause the figures are all on the paper, the same bein' The Glendale Evening News.

First, I will explain to you about the population. In 1910 there was only 2742 people that knew more about real estate than Columbus did, cause they all lived in Glendale.

The last returns for 1921 which has been counted shows there is about 18,000 people here now, but if all the new comers was counted that is arrivin' every day it would take 7 girls and a man with addin' machines hustling to keep tab on 'em.

Beats Gold Rush

The way people has moved to this town would make the gold rush of forty-nine look like a funeral procession.

There is 60 miles of paved streets in Glendale, only they is called avenues and drives and boulevards instead of streets. And the only reason there is 30 miles of unpaved streets is cause the paving companies can't work fast enough. Last fiscal year (whatever that is) the property in Glendale was valued at $5,504,481. The present fiscal year since we got here shows $9,384,525. Glendale has 13 varieties of altitude from 440 to 1150 feet above the sea's level, when the wind ain't blowin'.

Some places is higher than that and even more so, but I don't know much about higher mathematics and anyway it ain't got nothin' to do with the high school or the high cost of existence.

In 1919, buildings was put up which cost $587,015, but it don't say on the paper as whether they was all paid for or not.

In 1920 the buildings permits was $3,136,664. Say, Katie, hit that with your fly swatter. Back there in your town when anybody was reckless enough to buy enough lumber for a wood shed it was a excuse to have a band concert in honor of the event. But, Katie, things do move in this free orange state. This year (as we go to press) the total of the building permits is $1,713,423.

How do they do it? I dunno. Since I got on this job as a strivin' reporter which is all work and no pay, I ain't saved up enough to buy the south end of a caboose.

Connected and Disconnected

There is 5978 electric light connections which the same are sometimes disconnected when people don't pay their bills. There is 5268 water connections, the same showin' a big increase since prohibition got to be a habit.

There is 6050 gas connections that the same is used for heat and cookin' and dentists. In the Glendale schools there is 3627 scholars, 2 principals, 8 supervisors, 110 teachers and a few janitors.

We got a swell public library which claims to have 14,200 books, but some times some of 'em are returned to the 2nd hand stores by mistake.

There is 60 trains on the P. E. goin' and comin' to Los Angeles every day, unless you're waitin' for one and then they only go once in 6 hours. And by buyin' a round trip ticket both ways you can save 4 in stamps. There's 25 trains go to Burbank and back every day, but I don't know why and then there's 30 trains to Eagle Rock and 19 to La Crescenta.

That's 134 (count 'em), 134 trains Katie, comin' in to Glendale every day, so you see our main street is a pretty busy place. There is a lotta lodges and fraternal orders, too many to mention, but the Elks is the biggest which is battin at 1500. Glendale has got 15 churches with 5210 regular customers which explains for why there ain't many ball games here on Sunday.

People are all good in this town, Katie, but just the same, I guess 't would be a lot more fun bein' good if it was only against the law. Aint it so?

Everybody and his brother seems to have a auto and I wish I had one, but if wishes were autos the P. E. would go busted.

Postoffice Business Good

The postoffice in Glendale is a awful busy place and I guess it's goin' to be a success. For the year endin' in June, 1920, they took in $41,658.65, but on account of the letters I been writin' to you, Katie, I guess this year will be even more so.

I know I could give you a lot more facts on the figures in Glendale without mentioning any lady in particular, but must close for this time. Early to bed and early to rise saves the electric light bills, you know.

I hope you can come to Glendale next fall, Katie, cause I know how you have to sit behind the stove all winter and play tidly winks on the kitchen table or sit around and look at the pretty flowers on the wall paper.

Out here in the winter, where nature is all steam heated, you can pick roses on Christmas and play croquet on New Years.

That's all this time, Katie; sit down. Yours for Facts and Figures.
 E. C. HALE.

Elimination Of Waste In Industries Sought

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 8.—Starting figures in waste in industrial processes and recommendations for curbing the enormous annual losses were made public here today in the report of the American engineering council's committee on "elimination of waste in industry."

"Over 50 per cent of the responsibilities for these waste," the report said, "can be placed at the door of mismanagement and less than 25 per cent at the door of labor."

The report urged the installation of nationwide machinery to obtain continuous employment conditions; the finding of the ways to regularize employment and suggest a plan for co-operation between the government, the public, trade associations, industries, labor, bankers and engineers to eliminate waste. The report was made public by the executive board of the council of federated engineering societies. It was compiled by a committee of sixteen engineers, appointed last January by Herbert Hoover, president of the organization.

The engineers found that the margin of unemployment in the country amounts to more than 1,000,000 men, that billions of dollars are tied up in equipment, that high labor is a rough index of the commonest wastes.

Both capital and labor are blamed for the abuses found. The report declared that annual losses through conflicts between the two is much less than is popularly supposed.

Between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 workers were idle the first two months of the year, the report said. It predicted that $500,000,000 will be lost in the building trades in 1921.

The complaint placed the economic loss through preventable disease each year at $3,000,000,000. Deaths and serious accidents in industry can be reduced at least 75 per cent, it said.

Recommendations for elimination of waste included:

Formation of a national information service; a statistical bureau to report on employment conditions; a national health policy, including plans for the employment of defectives; revision of federal laws interfering with stabilization in industry; a program for the readjustment and settlement of labor disputes.

Purchased Any Stock In League of Nations?

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—"Has anybody in this state bought stock in the League of Nations?"

Such is the apparently flippant query Commissioner of Corporation E. C. Bellows wants the ubiquitous "sucker" to answer.

"Barnum was right," opines Bellows. "There's one born every minute. But we want to cut down the sucker birthrate in this state. And the general commissioner has issued a warning urging Californians to keep their hard-earned shekels out of the clutches of sharps and sharks. His warning follows disclosures in Chicago that smart salesmen have been flooding the Windy City with gilt-edged stock in the League of Nations.

All potential investors should demand to see the certificate of the stock broker before they place their money in any investment, no matter how good it looks. The commissioner is quite insistent on that point.

"Whenever a company, a broker, or an agent, offers securities for sale, the person to whom such offer is made should demand to see the permit issued to the company for the sale of the securities or the license of the broker or agent offering the security for sale, declared Commissioner Bellows.

"If the investor of California will utilize these simple methods the operators who have stock for sale in any 'league,' or who are peddling any questionable paper will soon find this state too lean for their pickings.

"A sheet of paper, a two-cent stamp and the exercise of that saving grace known as 'horse sense' surely is the cheapest possible insurance against being victimized."

PLAYTHING FOR CATS

A plaything for cats has been patented by Edith F. Kettle of Medford, Mass. It is a small, short metal cylinder with perforated ends, and is meant to contain catnip. The end pieces are merely paper disks, easily inserted in ring-shaped openings provided for them. The toy rolls about, and for that reason is attractive. The catnip invites by its smell, and pussy manages after a while to claw through one of the paper ends and get at the contents.

Mountain Ranges Have Dotage, Says Professor

BERKELEY, June 8.—"The Sierra Nevada mountains are in the full beauty of their early maturity, not awkward, clumsy peaks, not senile crumbling hills," according to Ruliff Stephens Holway, professor of geography at the University of California.

Mountain ranges, according to Professor Holway, have their childhood, maturity and dotage, just like human beings, though the different periods cover geologic ages or aeons, instead of brief decades that mark changes in the lives of men and women.

"Enjoyment of the scenery of the Sierra Nevada is greatly enhanced by a true understanding of the forces involved in its creation. The primitive conception of topography implied in the phrase 'the eternal hills' has given way to modern scientific belief that some mountain ranges are being made by successive small uplifts, that they pass through various stages, gaining in elevation during youth notwithstanding the constant erosion of winds, rivers, and glaciers. When the unlifting forces are spent maturity is reached, and thenceforth the erosional forces will continue their carving of canyons and valleys, and the average elevation of the mass will slowly but inevitably be reduced.

"After a time almost inconceivably long in the extreme old age of the mountains there will be left a plain with an occasional hill where a rocky mass of unusually resistant material relieved the monotonous level of erosion."

GIRLS WAIT ON THEM

Senior class girls of the department of arts and sciences at George Washington university, in Washington, D. C., believe it is more fun waiting on customers in a second-hand store than sitting tea, sitting in theatre boxes or dancing. Girls in this class have decided to go into the second-hand business. The class needs $500 for blankets for the football team and for a memorial for the university. So they decided to raise the money by holding a rummage sale.

TRY OUT HOT STORAGE

Hot storage as opposed to cold storage for many things may be realized soon if the experiments of scientists connected with the University of West Virginia prove satisfactory. Great success has been attained in showing the practicability of hot storage for such articles as clothing, carpets, furs, cereals, dried fruit products and other materials unaffected by dry heat. Hot storage with uniform and constant temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit would prove more effective than cold storage in many cases.

Probation Method Of Courts Gets Defense

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8.—An exhaustive reply to the prevalent criticism of our courts in granting probation, and of the prison boards in giving large numbers of pardons to convicts, was made here by J. E. Frick, justice of the supreme court of Utah. Among other things Justice Frick said:

"The treatment of criminals should be such as to effect, if possible, their moral regeneration. The purpose or aim of imprisonment should be to reform rather than to inflict vindictive punishment upon the convict for the wrongs he has committed. Every convict should be made to understand that his own destiny lies largely in his own hands.

"The prisoner must be treated in the penitentiary so that he soon learns that he is not being imprisoned merely to inflict punishment upon him, but that if he is being deprived of his liberties it is because of his own misconduct, and that the time he will be required to serve depends very largely upon his own will and upon daily and concrete evidence that he will make every effort to become a useful member of society by scrupulously obeying the laws of the country. Personally I am convinced that punishment, however severe or cruel, has never deterred the criminal inclined from following their inclinations. On the other hand who can say that kindness and understanding have not worked wonders in countless cases? If the public generally would appreciate how difficult it is for one who has been branded as a felon and who has neither friends nor means to obtain a livelihood in society, they would, I am sure, take greater interest in the criminal after he is discharged from imprisonment. Such an attitude would prevent the greater part of criminals from again resorting to their old life."

TOO BIG TO BIFF

Editor (to applicant for situation): "But I advertised for an office-boy, and you are a man of six feet."

Applicant: "I know, sir; but I am literally starving, and would be quite willing to do an office-boy's work for office-boy's pay."

Editor: "No, I'm afraid you won't do. You see, I am a very bad-tempered man, and am in the habit of venting my spite on my office-boy by kicking and cuffing him, and—well, I don't think you'd do. Good-day."

Despite the fact that 28.9 per cent of the world's savings are in this country, only eight per cent of the total number of the world's savers are American. One of every five inhabitants of France has a savings account.

To show the practicability of using dogs to carry messages when an airplane is unable to land, a fox terrier recently made a descent of 1500 feet in a parachute from an airplane. When he landed he worked himself free from his harness and ran to headquarters with a message suspended from his neck.

Old Men Talk War Memories At Gathering

BERLIN, June 8.—That Hindenburg months and months before the war's close saw the handwriting on the wall and often wanted to call a halt is the story that comes from the inner recesses of his private "skat" club in Hannover.

This same story casts a sidelight on his feeling for Ludendorff—a feeling that is generally admitted not to be very cordial.

Hindenburg, living in his pretty, modest cottage in Hannover, and having few intimates, "Skat" furnishes his amusement, and he likes a little group of old men—the more so, because they know him and don't talk war and politics.

While waiting one night for the field marshal to join them, the old men had discussed the war.

"I sometimes wonder if it was really necessary to sacrifice so many lives for naught," remarked one, not noticing Hindenburg had entered the room.

Hindenburg answered him.

"If the war had gone according to my idea, it would have closed much earlier," he replied, with dignity. "I saw years ahead what would come. I knew what the consequences would be even in 1914, 1915 and a longer time in the east when I was condemned to inactivity. I then followed all events carefully and always studied the war. I knew in advance the outcome of Verdun and saw the time when they would call me. All happened as I expected. They came and I fetched me, and later I have more than once wanted to say as I worked over my maps:—Schluss, Schluss (the end, the end)."

"But there was pressure from too many sides. And, in the last analysis, I am only human, and was already an old man."

The old men were moved. One ventured to ask:

"And what about Ludendorff?"

"Go," merely replied Hindenburg.

That was a judgment, as far as the old men were concerned. It spelled Hindenburg's feeling toward the man who mixed politics with strategy, who unlike Hindenburg, wasn't all soldier.

M'Adam Dancers Will Appear For Legion

Simply the announcement that the McAdams dancers will be on the American Legion Sick Fund benefit program is sufficient to stir unequalled interest in the entertainment for the numbers these clever terpsichorean artists provide are a whole show. The McAdams Normal School of Dancing in Los Angeles promises some of its best students who have appeared time and again on the professional stage.

Inasmuch as the benefit performance will be given only one night, Wednesday, June 15, at 8 o'clock, it is advisable for all to obtain their tickets in advance as the seating capacity of the theatre is limited for this five dollar, all-star show at 50 cents and $1.00.

Ben B. Lindsey, juvenile judge, of Denver, recently paid a fine of $500 and costs for contempt of court. The contempt charges were the result of Judge Lindsey's refusal to tell what a sixteen-year-old boy had confided to him in a talk having to do with a murder in the boy's family. The boy was a charge of the juvenile court.

Social Life Is Great Problem, Says Expert

MADERA, June 8.—Getting the people on the land, and getting a social life which will make life on the land worth while, are the two principal problems of land settlement, according to Walter C. Packard of the state settlement at Delhi, Merced county.

"You can't 'Go West' now and get land for nothing. It now requires capital for purchase and development. Most men going onto farms are not sufficiently financed for success. It takes from $1000 to $1500 to develop forty acres ready for your first crop, about the same amount for buildings, and about the same amount again for planting or stocking the place. In other words, it takes from $2000 to $5000 to get started. For these reasons too many of our lands are now going into the tenement class. To get the social life you must attract a good class of people to the land, people with American ideas and American standards. Otherwise the lands fall into the hands of a class of foreigners who have low standards of living, and who are a detriment to the social life of the community. It is our hope that the state will eventually aid in the financing of new desirable settlers on the land."

Secret Service Hunts Makers Of Bogus Bills

SEATTLE, Wash., June 8.—Uncle Sam by and large is a mighty easy going old fellow. There is one thing that he is mighty particular about, and that is that nobody starts playing tricks with his money. Day and night, year in and year out, the hunt by secret service men goes on for men who think they have a scheme to make bills or coins "so that you can't tell the difference."

Uncle Sam will spend any amount of money, perhaps a good deal more than the counterfeiters would have passed, and will stay on the job any number of years in order to catch and put behind the bars a man who wants to start up as a competitor of the mint.

Hugh C. Hamilton, 34, an ex-convict, is being held here on a charge of counterfeiting. Two glass negatives for printing $5 federal reserve notes were found in his possession. He claimed they were given to him by a lifer in the state penitentiary. W. L. Butts, 30, was arrested at the same time, and will be held as a witness. Butts, it was said, had been purchasing photographic supplies for Hamilton. In addition to the glass plates, five film negatives of $5 reserve notes were found together with bleaching material, developer and silk threads for use in imitating banknote paper.

Hamilton claims to have brought the plates from prison in the false bottom of a small box he carried. How did the secret service agents discover and arrest Hamilton before he got fairly started on a counterfeit career? The operatives only smile and keep mum. Uncle Sam has spent a lot of time and a lot of money studying and keeping track of counterfeiters and their methods, so you can't expect him to tell how he did it when he makes use of his knowledge once in a while.

Size of Naval Bill Is Cause for Clash

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Republican leaders of the senate and house have clashed over the size of the naval appropriation bill.

House leaders today were threatening to kill the bill unless the senate agrees to an appropriation of about $400,000,000, instead of the $494,000,000 included in the measure recently passed. House republican leader, Mondell, declared that under no condition will the house agree to a naval appropriation greater than the $425,000,000, and accused senators of talking economy and voting extravagance.

The house will insist that the Borah disarmament amendment be broadened so as to include other nations than Great Britain and Japan and to give the president the opportunity to call a conference on the resolution of both land and sea forces.

In this plan house leaders believe they have the backing of the president. Mondell said the formal feelers, which the state department had sent out included other nations than Great Britain and Japan.

House leaders are incensed at the senate increases in the bill and declare they will never yield.

The only increase which the house leaders are willing to allow is for new airplane construction and the authorization for an airplane carrier. However, they will insist that any work done on the airplane carrier during the next year be paid out of the $90,000,000 allowed for the continuation of the 1916 building program.

The house also will insist that the strength of the navy be reduced to 100,000 men. The senate bill provides for 120,000.

In Southern California

Freight Rate Reductions

Reductions in freight rates from 8 cents to 33 1-3 cents is announced on green vegetables, apples and cantaloupes being shipped from the west to the east. But this partial drop does not help the citrus grower.

It Pays to Collect Taxes

Although April was a cold month, southern California people paid Uncle Sam $54,008.21 taxes on soft drinks and ice cream. We citizens also parted with $250,902.95 taxes on $2,333,000 (estimated) theatre admissions during the month of April. In the neighborhood of three quarters of a million dollars in war tax was collected in this one little district in thirty days.

Police of Los Angeles were today pushing a strenuous investigation into circumstances surrounding the suicide of Mrs. Jack Mulhall, wife of a prominent film actor.

The young woman was found yesterday evening in her bedroom in the Mulhall bungalow in Hollywood, a towel saturated in chloroform over her face.

No motive for the tragedy has been unearthed, according to the coroner's office. No note or clew of any kind was found in the room.

The Mulhall home was regarded as a happy one by the Hollywood film colony. The pair had been married seven years. Mrs. Mulhall leaves a 3-year-old son, Jack, Jr.

Mulhall was reported in a state of collapse today.

Confer on Postal Needs

Motley H. Flint, vice-president of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings bank, and Postmaster General Will Hays conferred yesterday on postal needs in Los Angeles. But it is a safe bet that while Glendale is in Los Angeles postoffice, not a word was said about it, or San Pedro, or Alhambra, or any other luckless community which the "octopus" would grab.

Warning to Local Women

In the Broadway Department store, Los Angeles, yesterday, Miss Truly Shattuck, widely-known concert artist and screen star, had a $1,000 diamond plaque stolen, according to reports. That she should wear such a valuable bauble in a crowd seems unreasonable, but it is a good lesson for Glendale women to avoid the danger presented in the big downtown department stores when they can shop here.

Ark Is Afloat—Upside Down

Rev. Captain James E. Lewis' good ship, "Ark," is afloat. Unfortunately, it is floating bottom side up. The "Ark," an awesome-looking structure of wood and concrete built by the colored ecclesiastic for a journey to the "promised land" of Liberia, on the African continent, was finally launched last night from Terminal island, after several unsuccessful attempts. The fact that the reverend builder and navigator had failed to place any ballast in the hull became apparent when the craft was pulled into deep water. It turned turtle without any preliminaries. "It's just a test of the Lord," said Rev. Lewis, as he waded ashore from the wreck of the craft on which he has expended three years of unremitting labor. "I'm not discouraged. I'm goin' to raise that there ship, and I'm goin' to Liberia as representative of the Church of the Living God."

Boy Killed by Eagle

Juan Gonzales, 11-year-old Mexican boy, was killed in a battle with an eagle on Hobson Brothers' stock ranch fifteen miles from Ventura, according to word received today. The boy had climbed a high tree to investigate the eagle's nest and eggs, when the great bird attacked him. He was terribly lacerated in the battle which followed. His skull was pierced by the eagle's beak, and he was finally knocked from the tree to the ground. He was dead when picked up.

Jonathan Dodge Appointed

Jonathan S. Dodge, chairman of the county board of supervisors, has been appointed state superintendent of banking to succeed Charles F. Stern, who resigned to engage in private enterprise. Henry W. Wright, twice speaker of the California assembly, has been appointed by Governor William D. Stephens to serve Mr. Dodge's term.

Pasadena Votes School Bonds

Pasadena voted $750,000 school bonds yesterday. A light vote and little opposition is reported. Factionalism in the school board campaign was not noticeable in the bond election.

Maxican Families Returning

More than 1,000 poor Mexican families are on their way back to their native land, having embarked on the transport Mexico at Los Angeles harbor yesterday. The Cruz Azul (Blue Cross) looked after their welfare until the steamer sailed.

NOT GUILTY

A pretty girl entered a music shop, tripped up to the young man who was serving, and asked in her sweetest tones, "Have you 'Kissed Me in the Moonlight'?" "No, miss," answered the nervous youth, "it must have been the man at the other counter. I've only been here a week."

PURPOSE OF LEAGUE IS EXPLAINED AT PUBLIC MEETING

SOUTH GLENDALE FOLK HEAR ABOUT PLANS TO ENDORSE
CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

The recently organized Good Government league of Glendale, of which Dru Nicolas is president, held its first open session last night, a public mass meeting in the former Tropic city hall at Los Feliz Road and Brand boulevard. A hall packed full of enthusiastic citizens greeted the speakers of the evening, and the officers of the league afterward made the remark that the attitude and interest taken by the residents of the southern section of the city were extremely satisfactory to the purposes of the club.

In the absence of the president, who was unavoidably detained en route to the gathering, W. R. Phenon, vice-president, took charge of the meeting. He opened the meeting by requesting James Neil, who is a member of the league, to explain the objects of the organization.

Mr. Neil responded with an eloquent address, telling of the principles, purposes and proposed action of the league in the coming city election. He gave a short talk on the history of Glendale government during the past ten years and complimented the city officials who have maintained the political, economic and clean prestige among other southern California cities.

Outlines League's Purposes

Mr. Neil further stated that the main purpose of the league is to unite all of the elements of Glendale to pick the best men for offices and to support the best measures. He said that they had no selfish motive in their plans, as none of the members are seeking office. Also, that the league makes no nominations and proposes no measures, but that it endorses good candidates and supports good measures.

Following Mr. Neil's talk the meeting consisted of short speeches by several citizens in the audience, each of whom gave his or her opinion regarding the policy of the league. The following committee was appointed by a vote of the audience as south Glendale representatives to work with the committees from other parts of the city: Kemper Campbell, Stuart M. Street, Mrs. A. L. Bancroft and Mrs. E. V. Bacon. In the league's questionnaire sent to the sixteen candidates for city council and published in The Evening News last night, it appeared that refusal to answer the sixth question, relating to the right of every citizen to decide how he shall spend each day of the week, would be taken as an affirmative answer. The questionnaire provides refusal to answer will be taken as a negative reply.

Racial Question Will Come Before Congress

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Congressional action to solve the racial question in America will be speeded up as a result of the Tulsa race riots, leaders in both houses declared today.

While no investigation, such as followed the St. Louis race riots, which grew out of labor disputes is expected, there are two bills on the problem which will be pressed for early action.

The first plan is a bill by Representative Dyer of Missouri. It proceeds under the theory that the fourteenth amendment to the constitution gives the federal government authority to protect the negro from lynching. Participants in lynchings would be punished for murder by the federal government, under the terms of the bill. It would also penalize counties in which lynchings occur by a fine of $10,000.

The second plan is to create a commission to study the subject of lynching and mob violence with a view to bringing about more harmonious relations between whites and negroes. Senators Spencer of Missouri and McCormick of Illinois have introduced measures on this subject which are now being considered by the judiciary committee. Many members of congress have frankly declared themselves opposed to the Dyer bill, on the ground that it invades the police powers of the states. Even the friends of the measure are not optimistic over the prospect for its passage.

The Spencer-McCormick plan has the endorsement of President Harding and stands a better chance of becoming a law. In his acceptance speech and his first message to congress the president took cognizance of the racial question.

Women's Skirts Are Discussed By Pastor

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Puritans won't lengthen women's skirts, the Rev. Dr. R. Campbell, Christ church, Westminster, London, believes.

"The abuse of anything always furnishes its own corrective," the Reverend Campbell declared and he indicated that he wasn't going to get worried over the ankles displayed on Market street.

"Remember this," he said. "The short skirt is more hygienic than the long skirt of past ages."

"Both men and women know immodesty when they see it. Don't try, as a remedy, the measures of the Puritans."

Dr. Campbell is in San Francisco filling the pulpit of the First Congregational church for the summer.

WOMEN TAKE LEAD

The Phi Beta Kappa elections from this year's senior class at Oberlin resulted in the choice of nineteen women and only seven men. These elections, be it remembered, are made on the basis of scholarship alone. Years ago, the alleged inability of women to do the hard mental work required of college men was often employed as an argument against coeducation.
